

Station 5: The Smoke Stacks

Smoke Stacks Crossword Puzzle

Use the clues to fill in the puzzle below!

Try to finish the puzzle without looking at the answers!

Station 5: The Smoke Stacks

Across

1. What sends messages from your brain to the rest of your body?
2. This part of your brain helps you learn math and controls the right side of your body.
3. Doctors give you these helpful medicines to keep you from getting sick.
4. This is the control center of your body and is made up of neurons.
5. The _____ is the biggest part of your brain and is made of the left and right hemispheres.
6. You used this sense to observe which line was longer in station 1.
7. _____ are drugs that are sometimes made from mold.
8. Doing this can turn lungs black and make it hard to breathe.
9. You need your nose to use this sense.

Down

10. The second step of scientific inquiry is _____.
11. This sense is not safe to use when doing an experiment unless a parent or teacher says it is okay.
12. The addictive chemical in cigarettes that makes people smoke is called _____.
13. Which part of the brain helps us remember things and have emotions?
14. This drug kills neurons.
15. You need this part of your brain to breathe, grow, and sleep.
16. The third step of scientific inquiry is called _____.
17. This sense is used to observe sounds.
18. The final step of scientific inquiry is to _____.

Word Bank:

Smell
Taste
Sight
Hearing
Hypothesize
Conclude
Experiment
Neuron
Brain

Left Hemisphere
Cerebral Cortex
Brain stem
Limbic System
Immunizations
Antibiotics
Nicotine
Alcohol
Smoking

Station 5: The Smoke Stacks

Answers

